

WESTWINDS MUSIC SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP CODE

Ensemble playing and singing requires the ongoing attention and focus of every group member. Individual members of Westwinds are expected to make the commitment to attend rehearsals and to prepare diligently for performances.

Westwinds is a volunteer-run Society in which the Officers of the Society are full participants in the music programs, elected to leadership positions by the membership. Members have a responsibility to abide by the rules of the Society, participate fully in the election process, and to support elected officials in their ongoing duties.

Westwinds Members and Directors value this vision, encourage one another towards its goals, and treat one another with trust and respect.
